

A woman with blonde hair in a ponytail, wearing a white top, is looking at a modern shower panel in a bathroom. The shower panel is mounted on a wall with large, light-colored tiles. To the left, there is a wall with small, square mosaic tiles. A shower head is mounted on the wall above the panel. A glass shower door is visible on the right side of the panel. A small metal shelf with bottles is mounted on the mosaic wall to the left.
